Olga Balema, Sondra Perry and Jessi Reaves
June 17 - 26, 2020

For the Art Basel Online Viewing Room, Bridget Donahue presents a group selection of sculptures by Olga Balema, Sondra Perry, and Jessi Reaves, including newly conceived works as well as recent, foundational pieces. All three artists approach the position of the body in relation to the sculpted form. In the work of Perry and Reaves, the artwork becomes an interactive object, subverting traditional notions of use value assigned to both the body and the sculpture. Concurrently, Balema responds to a surrounding architecture that provides a support structure to the sculpture, expanding into the larger systemic support structures that form interior and exterior states of being.
